An organization's history is valuable for many reasons. For instance, it can simply remind our members "who we are", creating a strong bond that unites and inspires. We can draw lessons from understanding how previous members confronted challenges and opportunities, as well as how they responded to them. History can also answer the question, "How did we get to this point?" These are some of the reasons a history should be recorded.

The unit annual history shall be written as a factual narrative beginning with the installation of officers and ending with the summary of end-of-year reports for that ALA administrative year. Be sure the unit annual history truly represents a historical account of the unit-what was accomplished. It lists those who served as unit officers, as unit chairmen or committee appointments, and mentions notable awards, individual achievements, and activities or events your unit has participated in.

Your unit history year-end report needs to be submitted to Department Historian, Linda Holmes, at the same time other Year-End Reports are due, April 1, 2023. The unit history book is due by May 1, 2023. Senior Department History Contest Content and Scoring can be used as a guide. This information can be found on SD ALA website: www.sdlegionaux.org, Program, Historian; or the National ALA website: www.ALAforVeterans.org, under History, Best Department Senior History.
